

Session Descriptions

12:00-12:45:

Room 1. Operations. Col Brian Bishop, ORWG Dir of Operations, pilots and FRO's

Room2. Philanthropy . Ms. Kristina Jones, CAP Chief of Philanthropy, The top 5 ways your unit can start fund raising today. , IG Corps Opportunities, IG Program Overview, Complaints, Compliance Inspections, Professional Development as an SUI Team Member, IG Advising

Room 3. Health Services. 1Lt Jill Simmons, Health Services Update

Room 4: Cadet Update. Col Virginia Nelson, PCR DCS/Cadets and Lt Col Harold Buchanan, Oregon Wing Director of Cadet Programs

Room 5: Formations. C/Capt Mika Ojala/C/Capt Josiah Bailey, covering what you need to know about formations (terms, and the like). Then will give a brief description and demonstration of the Flight and Squadron Formations. If time allows will discuss Group Formations

1:00-1:45:

Room 1. Operations/Emergency Services. Col Brian Bishop, IC's and IMT's

Room 2. NCO's. SMSgt Patrick Dukes, Command NCO, target audience NCO's on staff, Commanders or prior enlisted members wishing more info on CAP NCOs. Covering changes in CAPR 30-1 in describing roles of NCOs at different echelons, developments in the program from NHQ, emphasizing the promotion process. End with an open forum for NCOs to share concerns or questions.

Room 3. Aerospace Education. Maj Brad Naas, Director of AE, explore the use of TEAMS platform to help AEO's communicate, share ideas and gather/use AE resources

Room 4. Feedback 101. C/Cpt Mika Ojala and C/Msgt KKaylee Spurlock, this class will cover the basic do's and don'ts, differences of constructive and destructive feedback and proper application.

Room 5. Uniforms 101. C/TSgt Olivia Froelich and C/Capt Mika Ojala, cover the basics of ABU, Class A, B, and C wear. Along with some finer details.

2:00-2:45:

Room 1. Operations/Emergency Services, Lt Col David Rudawitz, Emergency Services Officer, overview of the FY21 ES Training Program and review of 2020

Room2. Chaplain. Chaplain (Maj) David King

Room 3. Diversity. Lt Col Jim Howell, Diversity Officer, diversity and inclusion – what are they, why are they important to CAP, how to practice in the unit, tools for implementing and resources.

Room 4. AE/Principles of Flight/Jets. C/2Lt Samuel Beyer. Principles of flight, different types of power plants, along with basics of flight. To also include what C/2Lt Beyer has gone through and will go through to become a fighter pilot.

Room 5. Cadet Life/The Basics. C/1Lt Joshua Vanrenterghem and C/2Lt Camren McCall, focus on new cadets and give them tools, and knowledge to keep their uniform ready, and also cover Drill, Memory Work, PT, AE, Leadership, and basic things to understand as a new cadet. Will not be very in-depth but will provide enough detail for the cadet to understand.

3:00-3:45:

Room 1. Operations/Communications. Maj Brad Naas, 2 Meter Antenna Research – Design and Build, explore looking at 2-meter antennas, redesigning, and adapting antennas for use in Civil Air Patrol radio communications and Urban Direction Finding. Techniques of building antennas will be shared with anecdotal results with the use of antennas.

Room 2. Public Affairs. Capt Heather Perkins, Public Affairs Officer, All Things PAO. If you're stuck on how to move through the PAO specialty track, need help writing your PA plan, or just want to learn a little more about being a PAO, this session is for you. In this session, we'll go over ways to meet specialty track requirements, look at example PA plans, and do a quick review on PA best practices.

Room 3. Education and Training. Col Regena Aye update on changes to Professional Development now called Education and Training

Room 4. Military Careers – session 1 of 2. Former cadets now USAF Capt Shannon Young and 1Lt Tristin Briggs will talk about their opportunities/experience in the USAF. They will be joined by CW4 Devin Wickenhagen, a HH60 Instructor Pilot for the Oregon Army National Guard

Room 5. Cyber Patriot. C/1Lt Joshua Vanrenterghem and C/1Lt Luke VanSickle, discuss how to join Cyber Patriot, what you should start learning about and how the program works. They will also briefly discuss some of the more technical parts of the Cyber Patriot program, trying to make the program as clear as possible to new cadets.

4:00-4:45:

Room 1. Operations, Col Brian Bishop and Lt Col David Rudawitz, ask us anything

Room 2. Historian, 1Lt Karista Bradley, overview of historian duties

Room 3. Inspector, Lt Col Ed Bos, ORWG Inspector, IG Corps Opportunities, IG Program Overview, Complaints, Compliance Inspections, Professional Development as a Subordinate Unit Inspection Team Member, IG Advising

Room 4. Military Careers Session 2 of 2, continued from 3 pm

Room 5. Cadet Advisory Council meeting